Two Firms Receive Top HBA Honors

CINCINNATI –The Home Builders Association of Greater Cincinnati (HBA) is proud to announce its top 2009 award winners.

Robert C. Rhein Interests has been bestowed the 2009 Elda Marshall Developer of the Year honors. The company has hosted several HOMEARAMA®s including those at Carmelle (2009), Long Cove (2008, 2006, 2005) and Heritage Club (1998, 1996). The company also received the top developer honors for Best Logo of the Year, Best Sales Brochure, Best Color Ad, Best Sign Program, Best Entrance, Best Website and Best Land Planned Community (Carmelle).

M/I Homes of Cincinnati was named recipient of the 2009 Orville Brown Builder of the Year award. The company also received large volume builder awards for Best Corporate Brochure, Best Color Ad, Best Special Promotion, Best Design Center, Best Interior Merchandising and Best Single-Family Floor Plan ($250,000 - $400,000).

Karen Carroll, Fischer Homes and Cindy Thompson, M/I Homes of Cincinnati, received the HBA President's Award for highest sales volume in the attached and detached single-family homes' categories.

The honorees were recognized at the HBA's recent Greater Cincinnati/Northern Kentucky Sales & Marketing Council awards program.

The HBA of Greater Cincinnati is the largest local chapter of the National Association of Home Builders in Ohio and one of the top 20 largest HBAs in the country.
