 Note about duration and content of the presentation:*

To provide one hour of professional continuing education credits for the participants, the duration of the presentation must have one hour minimum spent on non-proprietary profession based learning activities, not product specific information. Proprietary product information and sales demonstrations are allowed after the one hour educational presentation.

 Note about Learning Objectives:*

To provide professional continuing education credits for the participants, the course must have at least four learning objectives. Each learning objective should be a clear and concise statement of the knowledge or skill that will be learned from taking the course. The Steering Committee will communicate these objectives to the participants before the course. Preference will be given to presentations offering professional CEUs.

Presenters will be offered a free admission to the entire day's events at the Green Homes Summit 2010.
