Explore Local, State & National Benefits

When you join the Home Builders Association of Greater Cincinnati, you automatically become a member of the Ohio Home Builders Association and the National Association of Home Builders. NAHB members have access to networking, educational opportunities, expertise, member savings and advocacy at each level of the association – local, state and national.

HBA of Greater Cincinnati

Your Home Builders Association of Greater Cincinnati promotes and protects the home-building industry in your area with professional development programs, networking opportunities and government representation for builders, remodelers and industry partners.

The HBA of Greater Cincinnati offer chances to connect with local home building professionals, advocate at the local level, learn new skills and navigate the home building industry in your area.

OHBA

The Ohio Home Builders association represents you in the state capital by educating your elected officials about the realities of the home building industry and promoting positive legislation.

State HBAs offer opportunities to connect with other professionals across the state through special events and programming, learning opportunities to grow your business and member savings programs to help support your business.

NAHB

The National Association of Home Builders is the voice of America's housing industry.

NAHB works to improve the business environment by supporting pro-housing candidates and regulations with advocacy efforts on Capitol Hill and resources for advocacy at the local and state levels.

NAHB also offers members cost-saving programs, expert insights, live and online education, networking and mentorship.
